College Song

*Fair star of Caroline, our College glorious,
Our College loved by all, to thee we sing.
May she forever shine, clear and bright, victorious,
To her our song of loyalty we bring.*

REFRAIN

*Fling wide the red and black, sing aloud her praises!
This is the song we sing, Lenoir Rhyne, to thee.*

*Fair star of Caroline, our Alma Mater,
Our College best of all in this broad land.
Thou best beloved of every son and every daughter,
Thy children hail thy name on every hand.*

Foreword

To bring before you in the years to be,
Mem'ries of days you spent at L. R. C.
To recall the face of an old time friend,
All your broken mem'ries to patch and mend.

Mem'ries of test days, holidays, plain days
Will all seem dearer to your future gaze
"Time will prove all things" is an old, old, saw
So time alone can prove this HACAWA.

Lenoir Rhyne Spirit

LENOIR RHYNE is a good sport in the best sense of the word. She has never thought that she was the only pebble on the beach ; nor does she imagine that she alone has the chorus of heaven and that all others are woefully out of tune. Ambition she has—and that to live up to the best that is in her—in her possibilities, her opportunities—to find and do promptly, faithfully, and well her part of the world's work. She has not, nor covets, the big "I" and little "U" spirit. She is not a holier-than-thou Pharisee. Hers is the spirit of good sportsmanship, good fellowship, neighborliness, sympathy, helpfulness. She honors, respects, loves her neighbors—glories in their success, and longs and strives to be a more and more worthy companion. Nothing mysterious, unique in Lenoir Rhyne spirit—it is Christian.

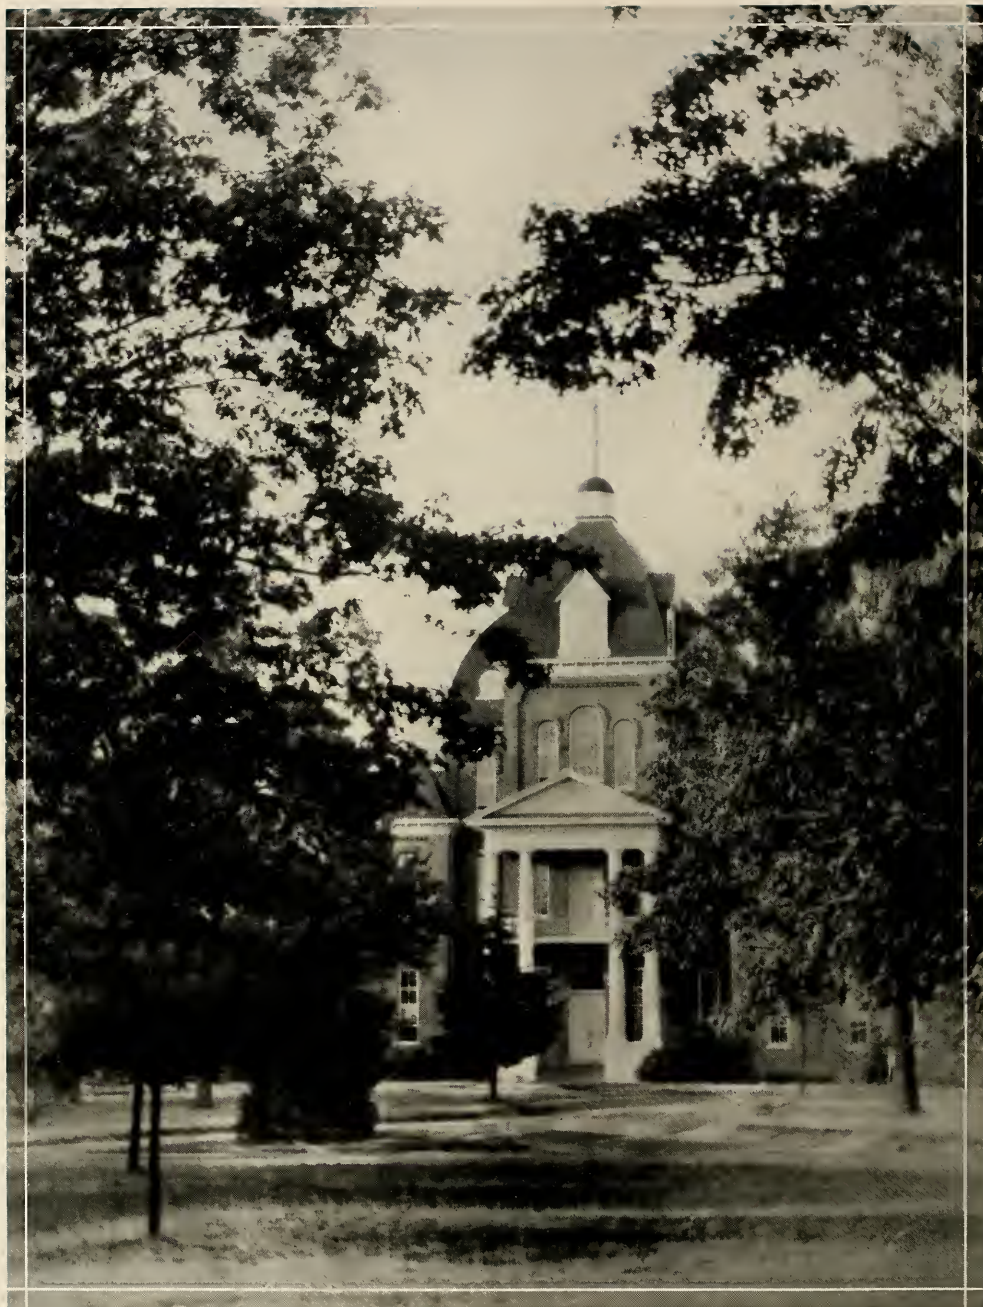

Such is her spirit—may it ever be the spirit of her children.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Who are we?
Seniors!

BONNIE MAE BEAM, A.B.

GROVETOWN, GA.

Eumenean, Secretary, '25, Treasurer, '26, President, '26; Art Editor, "Hacawa," '27; Luther League; Cosmopolitan Club; Honor Roll; Junior Play, '26.

Bonnie has been one of the most loyal members of our class for the entire four years. In class activities she has always taken an active part. She is an excellent student, having been on the Honor Roll for four years. If she enters Life's work with the same determination that she has manifested during her college career, nothing will hinder her from repeating her past record in the world at large.

HAZEL LORENE BEAM, A.B.

GROVETOWN, GA.

Eumenean, Treasurer, '27; Junior Play, '26; Cosmopolitan Club, Secretary, '27; Luther League; Brothers and Sisters Club; Honor Roll.

Lorene is an attractive and charming girl. She has great natural ability in several lines. Perhaps her chief characteristic is her friendliness, and her schoolmates will always cherish a memory of her pleasant smile. She is the kind of a girl who never fails to do her part in any task that may fall her lot.

MARY E. BLACKWELDER, A.B.

CONCORD, N. C.

Philalethian, President, '26; Glee Club, '26, '27; Assistant Cheer Leader, '25, '26; Junior Play, '26; Commencement Play, '26; "Lenoir-Rhynean" Staff, '27; "Hacawa" Diarist, '27; Best All-Round Girl, '27; Manager Girls' Basketball, '27.

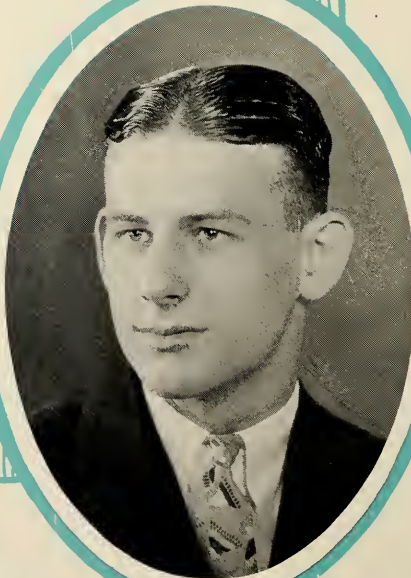

Combining intellectual capabilities and social accomplishments in a pleasing personality, "Meb" is a rare gift from Marion College. Coming to us in our sophomore year, she immediately fell in line and became one of the leading members of the class. She is very talented and is considered by all the best all-round girl in college. "Meb" has not decided on a life vocation, but has qualities which fit her for a professional career.

HENRY CRAWFORD BOGER, A.B.

NEWTON, N. C.

Chrestonian; Glee Club, '24, '25, '26, '27; Vice-President Student Body, '26; Basketball, '26, '27; Editor, "Lenoir-Rhynean," '27.

Some people impress one as being capable of real friendship and loyalty at first sight; Henry is one of these. He is an athlete, a member of the Glee Club, has been our cheer leader for the past year, takes the part of the hero in our plays, is an earnest church worker and a good student. Good luck to you, Henry.

MARY ESTELLE BROOKS, A.B.

CHAPELLS, S. C.

Eumenean, Lander College, '24; Summerland College, '25, '26; Lenoir Rhyne College, '27; Alpha Kappa Sigma; Palmetto Club; "The Rivals."

We were fortunate in securing Mary as a member of our class. Her ready smile and winning disposition have already won her many friends at Lenoir Rhyne; she has already proved her willingness to do whatever she can, and we know it will be done well. She is a loyal member in every respect, and the class realizes how unfortunate it has been not to have had her the past three years. To Mary go our best wishes.

LELA BLANCH BROTHERTON, A.B.

SHERRILL'S FORD, N. C.

Eumenean, Censor, '27; Catawba County Club; Honor Roll, '26; Hikers' Club, '27.

Lela is a girl of whom our class can well be proud. She is modest and quiet, and conscientious in her work, and can be depended upon to do her part. She always has a smile, and we feel sure she will do much good and that success awaits her.

MARGARET LOUISE BRANDON, A.B.
CLOVER, S. C.

Eumenean, Secretary, '25, Vice-President, '26, President, '27; Junior Play, '26; Basketball, '25, '26; Secretary Hall Commission, '27; Secretary Cabinet, '27; Vice-President Senior Class.

Take two large dreamy eyes, a wealth of dark brown hair, a winsome personality, and you have Louise. She is a very capable girl, and in recognition of her ability she has been given the responsible position of secretary of the Cabinet. No matter what she makes her life work, we are sure that success awaits her.

THEO D. CARPENTER, A.B.
LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Chrestonian; Diakonian Club; Gaston County Club.

Theo is a fine fellow. He always has a jolly word for his friends, and smiles broadly upon the world in general. Without him the Class of '27 would be incomplete. He is a supporter of every college activity and is greatly interested in religious work. Theo has the teaching profession in mind at present, and with his good-natured disposition and willingness to work we can assure him success.

VELMA FAITH CARPENTER, A.B.
LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Eumenean, Secretary, '26; Gaston County Club; Oakview Commission, '27; Cabinet, '27; Hikers' Club.

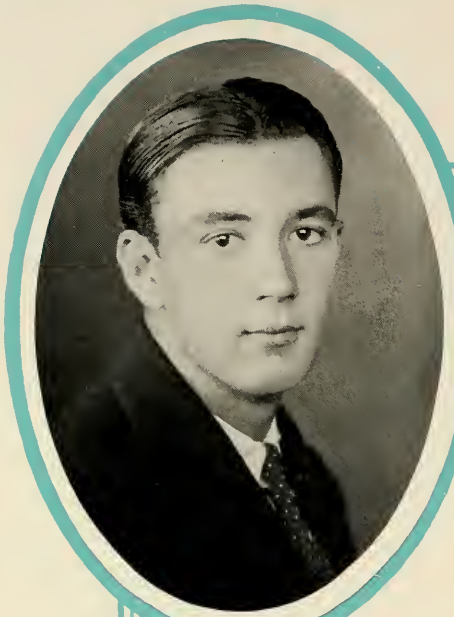

Velma has been in college only three years; this shows a willingness to work. She is very interested in all lines of college activities and takes an active part in them. She is a loyal society member and lends a helping hand to make it better. She enjoys fun in its place, but "work while you work, play while you play," is her motto. We wish Velma success.

MRS. FRANK CARPENTER, A.B.
HICKORY, N. C.

Catawba County Club; Hickory Nut Club.

"Nita" is a Hickory Nut, but that does not mean she is "nutty"; far from it, she is always happy, optimistic, and is a bright student. She has already changed her name, it is true, but we are glad she stuck to us to the end. "Nita" married one of our former students, Mr. Frank Carpenter. Our one wish for them is "A Happy Future."

ELMER L. CARPENTER, A.B.
HICKORY, N. C.

Chrestonian; Honor Roll, '24, '25;
Ministers Sons and Daughters
Club; Lincoln County Club; Brothers
and Sisters Club.

Elmer takes life easy and is an all-round, good natured fellow. He has been with us the entire four years, and has proven himself loyal to the class and to Lenoir Rhyne. He seems to be especially interested in history, and we are sure that success awaits him in whatever he attempts to do. From his interest in the fair sex, his life will not be a lonely one.

MARY LOIS CARPENTER, A.B.
CROUSE, N. C.

Eumenean Literary Society; Lincoln County Club, '24, '25, '26.

Lois is a decided brunette. Her make-up is a combination of seriousness and mischief, with an outstanding ability and a most pleasing personality. We feel that her vocation was properly chosen. The elements and ingredients of a good teacher are inherent in her; but in spite of the fact that she possesses the characteristics of a school teacher, it is obvious that she is not immune to take the darts of Dan Cupid, and we dare say that some day he may conquer Lois.

HAYDEN CANSLER, A.B.

HICKORY, N. C.

Euronian; Catawba County Club;
Hickory Nut Club; Track, '26, '27;
Science Club, '26, '27.

"Icky" is indeed individualistic. No one can help liking him; he is easy going, jolly, carefree, and just a good old sport. He is somewhat of a chemistry and physics shark, and we feel sure that he will startle the world with some great discovery. One outstanding characteristic is his promptness to meet classes—he always makes a grand entrance when class is about half over. May your heart always be light and happiness come your way throughout life.

LYNDA REBECCA CASTOR, A.B.

CONCORD, N. C.

Philalethian, VicePresident, '25, '27; Luther League; Cabarus County Club; Alpha Kappa Sigma.

Rebecca is a loyal member of our class, a good student and an earnest worker. "Beck" is always jolly, and where she is there is always sunshine. She is sound in character, modest, religious, and attractive. She is fair and square to everyone; she is always able to answer with some witty remark, although she gets her words mixed sometimes, but this only adds to the humor. Happiness awaits her in whatever activity she chooses.

J. LEE CAUBLE, A.B.

SALISBURY, N. C.

Euronian; President, '25; Fresh-Soph Debate, '25; Diakonian Club, President, '26; Glee Club, Manager, '26, President, '27; Cheer Leader, '26; Editor, "Hacawa," '27.

A Rowan County man, a singer of note, a speaker and an actor, an all-round boy—that's Lee. He has those qualities of sportsmanship, friendliness, sincerity and dependability which make him an integral member of the Class of '27. He is an active member of the Glee Club. One of his favorite songs is, "I Love the Ladies," and he surely practices what he sings. Cauble expects to be a missionary, and in that profession we wish and predict for him a successful career.

HAZEL A. CLEMMER, A.B.

STANLEY, N. C.

Chrestonian; Secretary, '25; Baseball, '24, '25, '27, Captain, '25; Basketball, '25; Gaston County Club; Honor Roll, '24.

Hazel is a wonderful baseball player, of whom every interested person in L. R. C. is proud, so the Class of '27 is fortunate in claiming Hazel as a member. He is a real sport, a good student, and an all-round fellow. He has many friends who often impose on his good nature because he can do anything well. He is talented in drawing, and we believe he will some day become famous in that line of work.

RUTH IRENE COON, A.B.
LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Eumenean, Secretary, '25, Vice-President, '26; Assistant Librarian, '26, '27; "Lenoir Rhynean" Staff, '26; Class Historian, '26; Junior Play, '26; Class Prophet, '27; Luther League; Hikers' Club.

A sunny smile, a word of kindness, and a joke that will cheer the bluest person; that is Ruth. She has been in the class the entire four years, and has been a pal, an athlete, and a real student. What more could be attributed to a person? In short, Ruth has been a hard worker and success cannot but be hers.

KATHLEEN CONRAD, A.B.
LEXINGTON, N. C.

Philaethian, Censor, '25, Treasurer, '26; Glee Club, '26, '27; Commission, '24, '26; Luther League; Junior Play, '26; Freshman Play, '24; Hikers' Club.

Half serious, half gay, beautiful brown eyes, a ready and winsome smile—that's "Kat." She is a very necessary and desirable member of our class, and although she finds time to take part in all social affairs, she is also a good student. We have our doubts as to "Kat's" following a career, but whatever she does, she has the best wishes of the Class of '27.

MARY ELIZABETH DEAL, A.B.
MOORESVILLE, N. C.

Philalethian; Chaplain, '25; Secretary, '25, '26; Rowan County Club; Crusader, '26; Student Cabinet, '26, '27; Oakview Commission, '26, '27; Honor Roll, '24, '25; Luther League.

Capable, sincere, modest, dignified, and kind—that's Mary. She is a real student; although quiet and unassuming she has the information when called upon. We have found her a loyal supporter of all undertakings of her class, society, and the student body. To her, work comes first, play second, and men afterwards. Mary, your classmates wish you the best of everything that the future has in store.

VERA GRACE CROUCH, A.B.
HICKORY, N. C.

Philalethian, Treasurer, '27; Hickory Nut Club; Catawba County Club; Honor Roll, '24, '25, '26.

Vera's ready smile and winsome disposition have won for her many friends, for everyone admires her. Her personality, scholarship and modesty prove her to be of lofty character. She always greets everyone with a smile and scatters sunshine wherever she goes. Here's wishing to Vera, our loyal classmate, the most happiness and success that life offers.

MARGARET FREEZE, A.B.

SYLVA, N. C.

Eumenean; Cosmopolitan Club;
DeCasse Club; Hikers' Club.

"Red" has been with us only two years, yet we have found that she is a good student even in that short time. We wonder how she makes the grades she does and yet carry a novel with her all the time. You may see "Red" at all the athletic games "rooting" with all her energy. We predict for her a success in whatever sphere of life work she undertakes.

MARY LUCRETIA FRITZ, A.B.

HICKORY, N. C.

Philalethian, President, '27; Glee Club, '25, '26; Commencement Play, '26; Freshman Play, '24; Hickory Nut; Catawba County Club.

"Cretia" is one of the most lovable members of our class. She combines cheerful optimism with true loyalty, and one never finds her unable to see the silver lining back of every cloud. We find in her the right amount of modesty and dignity; these help to make her the good sport she is, always one of the jolliest in any crowd.

WALTER COLUMBUS FOX, A.B.
HUDSON, N. C.

Chrestonian; Business Student, '23; College Band, '23, '24; Highland Hall Commission, '27; Student Cabinet, '27; "Hacawa" Staff, '27.

Walter, after having completed a business course, re-entered Lenoir Rhyne in the fall of '23. During his stay here he has continually added to his list of friends. He is a kind-hearted and generous fellow, always ready to lend a helping hand. His cheerful disposition radiates happiness wherever he goes. This winning personality and self-confidence will enable him to succeed in life.

LUCY ODEN GAYLORD, A.B.
PHOENIX, N. C.

Philaethian, Vice-President, '25, President, '26; Cosmopolitan Club; Honor Roll, '24, '25, '26; President Junior Class, '26; Cabinet, '26; Secretary Student Body, '27; Editor, "Hacawa," '27.

Lucy is a capable, dependable, willing worker. Her outstanding work in the classroom, with her ability in other college activities, proves that she is a real student. She is one of the few in our class who has been on the Honor Roll throughout her college career. Her pleasing personality and her willingness to do her bit in everything has won for her many friends. With her unusual executive ability and the above characteristics nothing but success awaits her.

EDYTHE FRANCES GETZ, A.B.

QUICKSBURG, VA.

Eumecan, Vice-President, '25, Secretary, '26; Student Cabinet, '25, '27; Junior Play, '26; President Oakview Commission, '27; Honor Roll, '24.

Edythe is one of those quiet, unassuming girls who never has much to say, yet thinks deeply. She is held in high esteem by all of her fellow students and professors. Her ability as a student and leader is shown in her society work and also having the honor of being house president of Oakview. In her you find a true friend, one who can be depended upon. Edythe is strong in character, modest in behavior, faithful to her friends, and shows herself to be a model student.

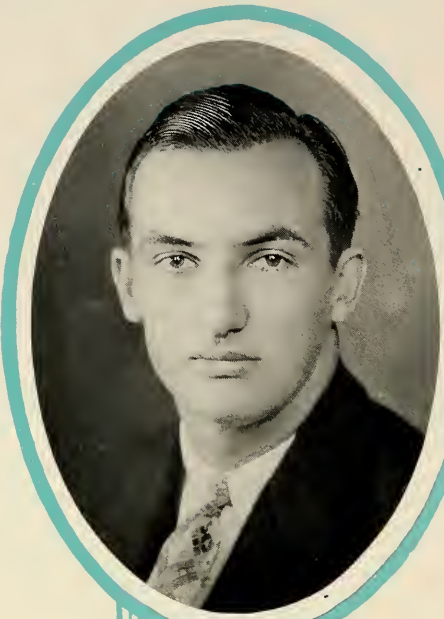

LENA MARGARET GREEVER, A.B.

TAZEWELL, VA.

Philalethian, President, '27, Censor, '26; Varsity Basketball; Old Dominion Club; Crusader; Baby Club; Class Historian, '27.

About fifteen minutes after the bell has rung the classroom door opens and in walks Lena. Though late to class, she makes up for lost time by exerting a greater amount of brain power. Lena can sympathize when sympathy is needed, and cheer you at all times. In short, she is a true pal and an all-round good sport. We are sure she has the best wishes of the Class of '27.

ARTHUR CLIFTON HOOD, A.B.
VALE, N. C.

Chrestorian, President, '26, '27;
Football Team, Basketball Team;
Baseball Team; Letter Men's Club,
President, '27; Secretary Class, '27.

In "Brodie," as he is known in college, we find a fellow that is liked by everyone. He is a splendid athlete, being a three-letter man, and also a real sport in all athletic activities and among the student body. He is a leader in the class, always willing to do his part. "Brodie's" place as an athlete, sport and sheik at Oakview will be hard to fill next year.

FRANKIE HUFFMAN, A.Mus.
HICKORY, N. C.

Philaethian, Vice-President, '27;
Catawba County Club; Hickory
Nnt Club; Glee Club, '25, '26;
Commencement Play, '26; Junior
Play, '27.

Small in stature, of a large mental capacity, but with a heart bigger than them all, that's Frankie. She is always happy, but never more happy than when she is "tickling" a piano or pipe organ. She is a good student, a friend to everyone—and favors she will do. For one of the most popular students at L. R. C., you may turn to Frankie.

JOHN WHITE IDDINGS, A.B.

EAST SPENCER, N. C.

Euronian; "Lenoir Rhynean" Staff, '26, '27; "The Rivals," '27; Tennis Team, '25, '26, '27; Glee Club, '27; President Luther League, '27; President, Diakonian Club, '27.

To this member of our class much credit is due. White is a hard and dependable worker in all class activities as well as religious work. He was a mainstay in the publication of the college paper during the past year; neither can we forget his ability as an actor. White plans to enter the ministry, and we are sure, with his personality and ability, he will attain success in this high and noble calling.

ETHEL AGUSTA KISER, A.B.

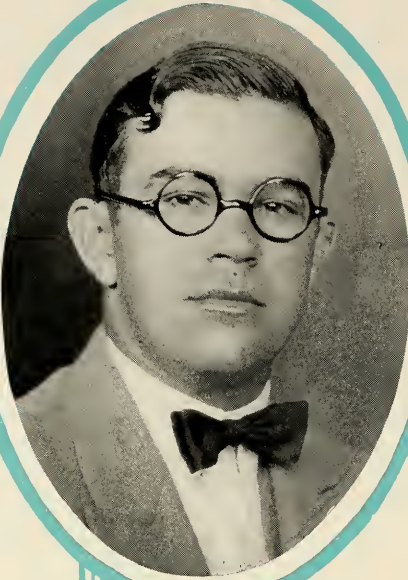

LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Eumenean, Secretary, '25; Honor Roll, '24; Vice-President Class, '26; Basketball Team, Captain, '24, '27; Junior Play, '26; Oak View Commission, '25; "Lenoir Rhynean" Staff, '26.

Ethel came to L. R. C. from Tryon Hi. She has made a splendid record at Lenoir Rhyne, and is a steady, loyal student, one who always puts her school work first; yet she takes an active part in all college activities. She is very much interested in basketball, of which she is captain. Ethel is loved by everyone who knows her, and her place as an athlete and student will be no easy one to fill.

ROBERT HUGH KEPLEY, A.B.
LEXINGTON, N. C.

Euronian, President, '26, Chaplain, '27; Cosmopolitan Club; Honor Roll, '24, '25, '26; Hiland Hall Commission, '25, '26; Student Cabinet, '26.

Hugh came to Lenoir Rhyne from Lexington Hi and entered as a freshman. He has held a distinctive place in the class and has made his mark. He has an unusual power of reasoning and is talented with both originality and individuality. Small in stature, but by no means small intellectually. Kepley has chosen the gospel ministry as his life's work, and we predict for him a bright future.

MARGARET GLENN KNOX, A.B.
CLOVER, S. C.

Eumenean, Treasurer, '25, Secretary, '26, President, '27; Luther League; Commencement Play, '24; Commission, '26; Cabinet, '26.

Margaret comes to us from the Palmetto state, and has been a true and loyal member of our class. Margaret is sympathetic and kind, and is a friend to all. Knox enjoys a good time, yet when there is work to be done, she is ever ready to do her share. She is a loyal society member, as well as a good student, and we are sure success will be hers.

JENNY LEE LINEBERGER, A.B.
MOUNT HOLLY, N. C.

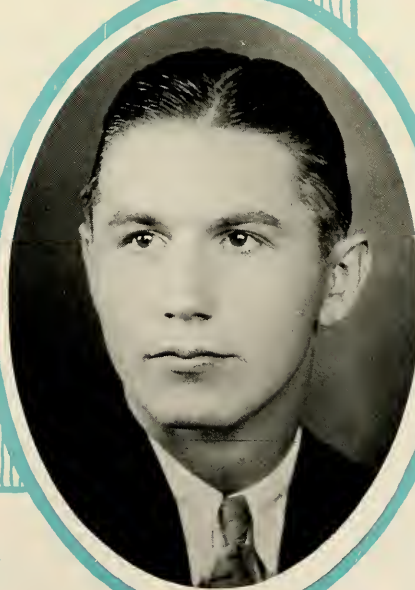

Philaethian, Secretary, '24; Luther League; Baby Club; Gaston County Club; Crusaders; Oakview Commission, '26.

Jenny Lee is one of the prettiest as well as one of the most capable girls in our college. We are indeed very glad to claim her as a member of our class. She has accomplished many things during her stay here, both in her literary work and social life. She is a talented musician and plays with ease. She plans to do missionary work, and we know she will achieve much success in this field.

MARVIN JOSEPH LENTZ, A.B.
ROCKWELL, N. C.

Euronian. Censor, '26; Rowan County Club; Baseball, '25, '26, '27; Advertising Manager, "Hacawa," '27.

We as a class are proud of our classmate from Rockwell. Lentz is a good sport, whether in class or on the campus. He is interested in all forms of athletics, especially baseball; he manifests much talent on the first "sack," and we know that he has an equal ability to meet the trials of life. Lentz, carry the smile which is one of your characteristics, into life, and we are sure that success will be yours, for we are expecting much of you in the future.

WILLIAM RUDOLPH LINGLE, A.B.
MOORESVILLE, N. C.

Euronian; Ministers Sons and Daughters Club; Brothers and Sisters Club; Cosmopolitan Club.

Rudolph entered our class in '26 from the University of North Carolina. He is one of our sincere and friendly students; he is agreeable and good natured, although somewhat impulsive. He greatly enjoys life and all the pleasures that go with it. By this we do not mean to say, however, that he is not a good student; for in spite of these things he has managed to do a great deal of work in the last year. We wish you luck, Rudolph.

RUTH LOWRENCE, A.B.
CATAWBA, N. C.

Catawba College, '22, '23; Eumenecan; Baby Club, '24; Catawba County Club, '24, '27; Crusader; Hikers' Club, '27.

Ruth knows both sides of school life, having spent several years teaching. We are glad that she chose the right path and came back to graduate with us. She is quiet, but industrious and faithful, and ever ready to lend a helping hand. She says she expects to teach school, but it seems probable that Cupid might change her plans. We are sure that success will attend her in whatever undertaking she may make.

BARBARA ENNIS LUTZ, A.B.
VALE, N. C.

Eumenean, Censor, '25, President, '26; Honor Roll, '24, '26; Luther League; Crusaders; Lincoln County Club; Brothers and Sisters Club.

The mere mention of Bobbie makes one think of the attributes of character, loyalty, steadfastness, faithfulness, patience, and love. Bobbie is one of the very quietest members of our class, but she is the truest, the most dependable. When she is supposed to do a thing, there is no need to worry; it will be done and done well. Her capability is shown in her class work and society. Success awaits you, Bobbie, in anything you desire to undertake.

O. NICHOLAS LYNN, A.B.
LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Chrestonian; Glee Club; Manager Baseball, '27; Highland Hall Commission, '27; Student Cabinet, '27; Male Quartet, '26, '27.

"Nick," with a heart full of sunshine and a soul full of song, has done his part in brightening the four years of our college life at L. R. C. He has many talents, but chief among these is his musical ability; therein lies his joy. "Nick's" magnetic personality attracts many to him, the opposite sex especially, but he is not at all partial. He has ever proved loyal to his school, class, and friends. Our wish for him is that he continues smiling and singing as he goes down the highway of life.

BERNICE RUTH MILLER, A.B.
HICKORY, N. C.

Eumenean, Vice-President, '25; Treasurer, '25; Honor Roll, '24, '25, '26; Junior Play, '26; Crusader; Hickory Nut Club; Catawba County Club; Testator of Class, '27.

Bernice is a town girl, but she has a host of friends on the campus. She is loved and admired by both the faculty and the students for her sincerity and open-heartedness. In her you find a true friend, one who can be depended upon. She is jolly, sociable, optimistic and rarely, if ever, do you see her angry or blue. She has a deep sense of duty; she is prompt and dependable. Bernice, though the youngest member of our class, is well fitted for the profession of teaching. We feel sure that success awaits her.

FLORA EDITH McREE, A.B.
MAIDEN, N. C.

Eumenean, Chaplain, '27; Honor Roll, '24; Glee Club, '26, '27; Luther League; Catawba County Club; Hikers' Club.

Edith is noted for her kindness of heart; she is a friend in the truest sense of the word. Her motto seems to be, "Give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you." Edith is always ready to lend a helping hand, whether in work or play, and this has won for her the esteem and admiration of all her classmates. Her many friends wish for her the realization of her highest ambitions.

WAYNE ALTON PASOUR, A.B.

DALLAS, N. C.

Euronian: Football, '24, '25, '26, '27, Captain, '26, Basketball, '25, '26; Highland Hall Commission, '27.

Wayne came to us from the Dallas Hi, and has spent four successful years with us. The name, "Mule," was very appropriately attached to him, as he is one of the most consistent football warriors of our institution. He was captain of the greatest football team in the history of Lenoir Rhyne in '27. Aside from his athletic prowess, "Mule" is an ideal student, classmate and companion, with a keen sense of humor and an abundance of sound common sense and a special interest in a certain strawberry blonde.

HUGH VICTOR OVERCASH, A.B.

KANAPOLIS, N. C.

Euronian: Student Cabinet, '25, '26; Hall Commission, '26, '27; President, '27; Football, '26, '27; Basketball, '26, '27, Captain, '27; Business Manager, "Lenoir Rhynean," '27; Business Manager, "Hawawa," '27.

There is no doubt that "Vic" is the most popular boy at Lenoir Rhyne. From the very first day he entered college he has been a friend, a real student, and a man's man as well as a ladies' man. He has been one of L. R. C.'s mainstays in two branches of athletics—in football he has made a fine record, and as a climax to his athletic career he became captain of the 1927 basketball team. Whatever "Vic" undertakes as his life work, his pleasant disposition and ability assures him success.

BOYD ROBINSON, A.B.

MAIDEN, N. C.

Graduate Rutherford College;
Catawba County Club; Piano Student.

Boyd entered our class from Rutherford College in his senior year. We have found him always to be a warm-hearted, dependable, capable student. He is opinionated and confident, and his cheerfulness is constant and contagious. Boyd is also a musician of note, and he expects to do graduate work in this field. After graduation, Boyd will enter the teaching profession, for which his pleasing personality, common sense, and insight into human nature eminently fit him.

MARY ETHEL REINHARDT, A.B.

NEWTON, N. C.

Eumenean; Baby Club; Crusader;
Catawba County Club; Luther League, '25, '26.

Ethel has proved to be a conscientious student and a loyal supporter of college activities. Yet she is interested in having fun, and enjoys teasing others. She believes in developing the social activities as well as the intellectual. She is especially interested in English and play production. She has chosen the teaching profession, and we feel sure that a brilliant future awaits her.

FANNIE PRUE RUDISILL, A.B.
LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Eumenean; Gaston County Club;
Crusader; Hiking Club, '27; Luther League.

We could not do without Fannie Prue, for with her sweet, modest ways she has won all our hearts. She has many admirable characteristics—friendliness, cheerfulness, loveliness. One seldom hears her, for she is quiet and reserved; nevertheless, we feel her presence. We wonder what she is planning to do in the future. Whatever it may be, may happiness and success attend her.

LOCKE RUSSELL, A.B.
HICKORY, N. C.

Chrestonian; Hickory Nut Club;
Catawba County Club; Orator, '27;
Debating Team.

"Judge," as he is known, is a good student, an orator, and a good sport. He is a "shark" in all history and government classes. He plans to study law and take up politics. We can picture him sitting on the bench in years to come, or perhaps secretary of state, or, who knows, he may be President of the U. S. A. Whatever he chooses to do, we know we will hear from him later on in life.

NELLA EUGENIA RUDISILL, A.B.
CHERRYVILLE, N. C.

Philaethian; Oakview Commission, '25, '27; Cabinet, '27; Gaston County Club; Luther League; Honor Roll, '25.

Nella is an excellent student, a loyal member of the Philaethian Society, and a sincere worker in all college activities. Though quiet, reserved, and unassuming, she does not lack a fine sense of humor and the love for fun and good times. Her pleasing personality and her ever ready smiles have won for her many friends. Nella is never too busy to do a favor for a friend, and her good judgment always proved valuable to those seeking advice.

LAURA MARGRETTA SEAGLE, A.B.
LINCOLN, N. C.

Eumenean, President, '27. Treasurer, '26; Hiking Manager, '27; Oakview Commission, '27; Alpha Kappa Sigma.

Margretta is a true friend to all, and a good student as well. She sees the bright side of life, and "to know her is to love her." She is a true daughter of the Eumenean Society, and is also willing to help in everything the class attempts. Her chosen profession is teaching, and with her good nature, loyalty to duty, willingness to serve, and charming personality, we feel sure that she will succeed.

ROY SETZER, A.B.

HICKORY, N. C.

Euronian; Catawba County Club; Hickory Nut Club; Play Maker; N. C. State Champion Orator, '26.

Here is our Calhoun and Webster, both in one! Roy starred for L. R. C. in the state oratorical contest in '26. In everyday life he is always prone to conversation, which he illustrates with various and sundry stories. We do not know him so well, because he has been with us only two years, but that's long enough to know he is the only boy in a family of devoted sisters. We predict for Roy a brilliant career in the field of law.

CLAUDIA EDITH SEABOCH, A.B.

HICKORY, N. C.

Philalethian; Honor Roll, '24; Catawba County Club; Hickory Nut Club; Hikers' Club, '27.

Edith is a good student, loyal to society and friends. She is energetic, sincere, and never does anything by halves. Anything worth doing to her is worth doing right. She is always ready for fun and eager to join in all college activities. Her hearty laughter may be heard wherever she may be. "What one thinks of me matters little; what one knows of me matters much."

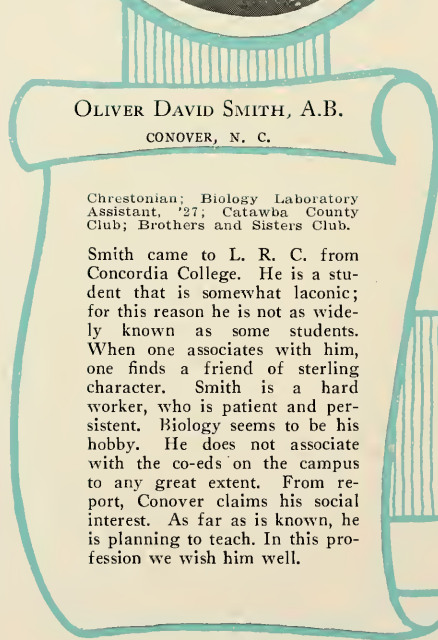

MADGE VIOLET SIGMON, A.B.
HICKORY, N. C.

Philalethian; Hickory Nut Club;
Catawba County Club; Brothers
and Sisters Club.

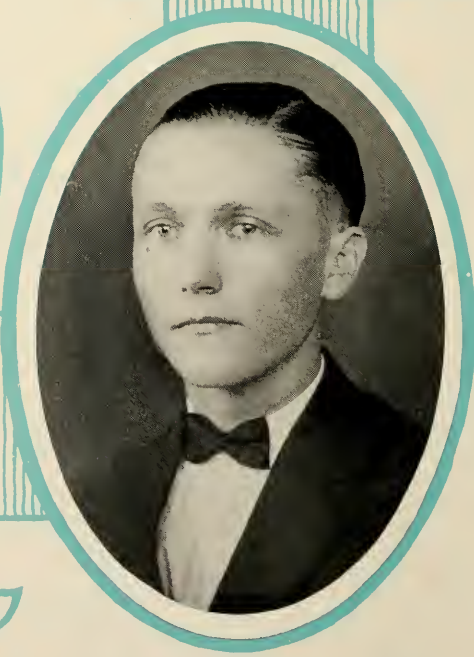

Fortunate, indeed, was the Class of '27 in receiving Madge as a member this year. She adds to the scholarship and beauty of the class. Quiet, amiable, and dignified—these are outstanding characteristics of Madge. With these charming qualities, success and happiness cannot but be hers, be it in the school room, or brightening the home of some lucky man.

OLIVER DAVID SMITH, A.B.
CONOVER, N. C.

Chrestonian; Biology Laboratory Assistant, '27; Catawba County Club; Brothers and Sisters Club.

Smith came to L. R. C. from Concordia College. He is a student that is somewhat laconic; for this reason he is not as widely known as some students. When one associates with him, one finds a friend of sterling character. Smith is a hard worker, who is patient and persistent. Biology seems to be his hobby. He does not associate with the co-eds on the campus to any great extent. From report, Conover claims his social interest. As far as is known, he is planning to teach. In this profession we wish him well.

ALBERT SPURLOCK, A.B.

PORTLAND, IND.

Euronian; Cosmopolitan Club; Football Team, '25, '26, '27; Basketball Team, '26, '27; Baseball Team, '26, '27; All-State Fullback, '27.

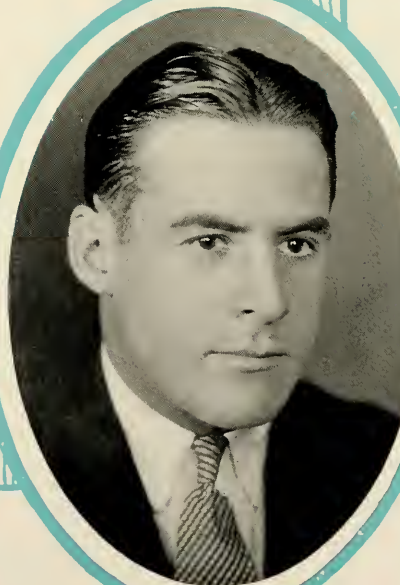

We find in "Spur" the perfect genius. He has achieved all the honors that a football man could possible receive. He is a four-year letter man, all-state fullback, and the idol of football fans in this and surrounding states. His ability and willingness have helped much to put Lenoir-Rhyne on the map athletically. "Spur" is not only a wonderful athlete, but also a good student. The school that gets Spurlock for a coach may consider itself favored by the gods.

HUGH WILLIAM SIGMON, A.B.

NEWTON, N. C.

Chrestonian, Treasurer, '26; Declaimer, '26; Chemistry Laboratory Assistant, '26, '27; "Lenoir-Rhynean" Staff, '26.

Here is one who is interested in and stands for anything that is for the betterment of L. R. C. Hugh is assistant instructor in Chemistry Laboratory, a good math. student, and seems to be somewhat of a scholar. In short he is an all-round fellow. With his willingness, determination, and ability, we predict for him a prosperous future.

FANNIE MAE TEMPLE, A.B.

HICKORY, N. C.

Eumenean; Treasurer, '25; Cosmopolitan Club; Honor Roll, '24, '25, '26; Crusader, '27; Hikers' Club, '27.

Quiet, reserved, loyal, kind, and, in fact, all the traits that can be attributed to a sterling character are to be found in Fannie. To those who know her best, she is altogether lovable and witty; and once her friend you are always her friend. Because Fannie has succeeded at Lenoir-Rhyne, we truly expect her to succeed in life.

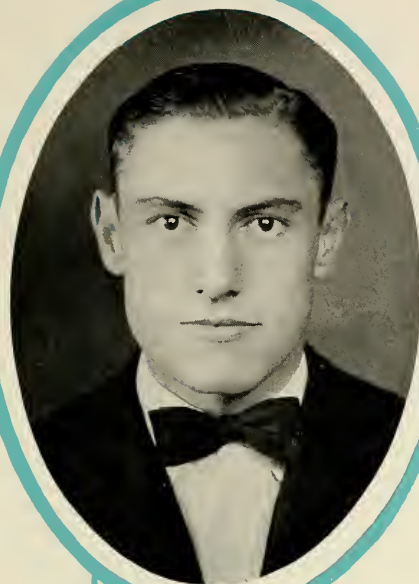

EDGAR SAMUEL TEMPLE, A.B.

HICKORY, N. C.

Chrestonian, President, '26; Honor Roll, '24, '25; Brothers and Sisters Club, '27; Highland Hall Commission, '27.

"Major," as he is known to his classmates, is one of the most conservative members of the Senior Class. He is a dignified senior and an honor student. He has many traits of a business man, as he has shown in his ability to hold down a position and go to school at the same time. "Major" has also followed a course that is not listed in the catalogue, and we are sure that he has a great future before him.

JOSEPH FRANK TURNER, JR., A.B.

MT. ULLA, N. C.

Euronian, Secretary, '27; Highland Hall Commission, '27; Junior Play, '26; Student Cabinet, '27; Manager Basketball, '27; President, Senior Class, '27.

Frank joined our ranks three years ago. Since that time he has become one of the most prominent members of our class. He has the honor of being our senior president, and he surely makes a good one. This year Frank is also manager of basketball. May the future bring him as many friends as the past has; and may his path in life be as smooth as his love affairs at L. R. C.

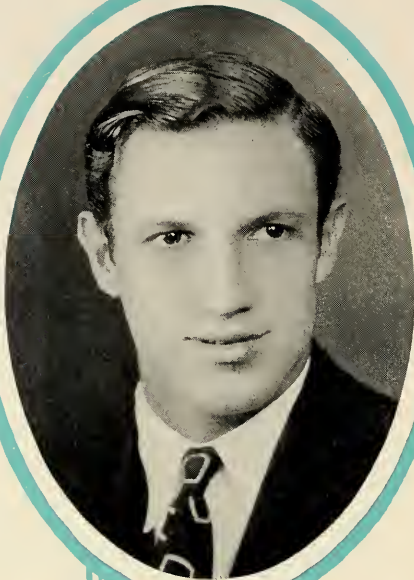

ELSIE SULLIVAN WARLICK, A.B.

LINCOLNTON, N. C.

Eumenean; Graduate of Davenport College, '25; Lincoln County Club; Crusader.

We were indeed glad to have Elsie join our class in the fall of '26. She is a quiet, unassuming girl of good qualities, whom we are proud to call our classmate. Although small in stature, she is large intellectually. Elsie always labors with the determination to accomplish something. She is a friend to everyone who knows her. We predict success for Elsie in whatever she undertakes, and the best wishes of the Class of '27 accompany her.

ROY C. WHISENHUNT, A.B.

CLAREMONT, N. C.

Chrestonian, President, '26; Junior Play, '26; Baseball Team; Football Team, '26, '27; President Cabinet, '27; President Student Body, '27.

"Whis," one of Lenoir Rhyne's star athletes, has proved himself one of those rarest of combinations, not only an athlete, but a good student. He is a very efficient and capable president of the student body, an outstanding star in football, all-state center fielder in '26, and an admirable boy. L. R. C. regrets losing "Whis." He is a good catch, girls, but we're afraid he is caught. Here's to a good sport, the best all-round boy at L. R. C.

"OLD MAIN"

A picture of "Old Main" before the fire of January 6, 1927. A scene that will long remain in the hearts and minds of every member of the Class of '27.

Senior Class History

HERE is always a great problem confronting High School graduates, who expect to continue their education, and that problem must be solved. It is this: "What College shall I attend"? Over a hundred boys and girls wisely selected Lenoir Rhyne, and at the beginning of the 1923-'24 session, entered the halls of our beloved College. Thus, our history began.

During our Freshman year, we were conscious of our insignificance and usually did as we were told—for a while at least. However as we became better acquainted with College life, we formed new and lasting friendships which were never to be broken.

Time passed quickly by and the following fall found us back on the old hill, not as "Rats," but as wise Sophs. This year, we, as a class decided to abolish hazing completely, and thus have the honor of being the first class to ever do this. At the end of the year, we knew that half the race had been run, and that we just must come out victorious in the end.

In our Junior year we began to realize the seriousness of our work. Practically all of our members returned, with a high goal set before us to be attained. It was during our Junior year that our friend, football captain and classmate, Baxter Gillon, so nobly and valiantly laid down his life for his Alma Mater. Yes, we have missed him, but that never-dying spirit of loyalty has predominated through our College career.

Not only have we furnished a great deal of athletic material for the various sports, but also in other fields of activity, such as debating, playmaking and literary society work. For the past three years, one or more of the cheer leaders have come from our class. There are quite a few of our members who expect to become ministers after further preparation. Others expect to teach, while still others have different plans in view.

Finally, we have reached the last rung of our ladder. We now go out from the walls of dear old Lenoir Rhyne, and will ever cherish and honor her name. And why do we call this Commencement? We have reached the point where we can look out over the world and see more plainly its needs and hear more clearly its calls. Let each of us as we say good-bye to our classmates and to our Alma Mater, be determined to renew our pledge of loyalty to the ideals inspired by our contact with both, and of continued co-operation in service to God and to mankind.

L. G., Class Historian.

Prophecy

QNE sunny afternoon, tired, lonely and weary of the society of my companions, I wandered into the woods to be alone. I walked until I came to a flowing brook, almost concealed by the trees, bushes, ferns and flowers. I sank down upon a bed of moss and rested my weary head upon the grass. As the birds sang sweetly among the branches, and the bees hummed gaily as they passed from flower to flower, and as the brook ran singing over the rocks on its way toward the sea, my thoughts went back to the Geology Class at L. R. C. and as I watched the erosion of the stream I wondered if it might not tell me of my classmates. My mind was centered so deeply upon them that the water began to tell me of my thoughts. It told me that Nick Lynn and Clifton Hood had just returned from a trip to the North Pole and had been exploring for quite a while.

Lucy Gaylord is a novelist of exceeding genius.

Henry Boger began his career by editing a newspaper, but lost his position one day while pondering over the word "love." Today he is the editor of one of the greatest magazines in America.

Edith McRee taught school several years, but her kind and sympathetic heart prompted her in the founding of a hospital to take care of the sick dogs and cats.

Edythe Getz is Dean of Women at Lenoir Rhyne College and matron of one of the girls' dormitories.

In college Margaret Knox and Louise Brandon were inseparable friends and even in marriage they would not be divided, but still exchanged confidences over the fence.

I had heard of all my classmates and began to wonder if I had been forgotten, but alas! the stream had eroded so far that I only caught a faint whisper of my name as it went on its journey toward the sea.

Junior Class History

AS WE draw nearer and nearer our goal we like to stop and think of our past, of those days when we were new students in the college, of our fears—and they were many—of our associations with one another, and of our growing devotion to our future Alma Mater.

On that memorable day of September 10, 1924, we entered with the largest class in the history of the College. We numbered one hundred and twenty-eight boys and girls, not only from the Old North State but also from South Carolina, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

Each new day brought forth new problems. We walked cautiously and approached the professors as we would some great monster. These fears were soon brought to an end as we became better acquainted. We were welcomed to the school by both faculty and upper-classmen. Great was our joy when the Sophomores gave us a party. The more we learned of Lenoir-Rhyne the more we loved her.

At once we entered into the activities by furnishing the Varsity teams with our share of men. We were a part of the school, we could and were doing something.

The year ended all too soon with a long lapse until we must enter as Sophomores. Again we wended our ways to Lenoir Rhyne to greet our friends of the year before. But alas, many of our number had left us, our ranks were thinner and much to our joy, new faces awaited us. With a more hearty zeal we entered into our work both in the classrooms and on the campus.

We initiated the Freshmen, made them feel at home by giving them a "kid" party, and then proceeded to apply the usual "Sophomore Treatments" for ailments so common to the "Freshie."

The Coach turned to our class to fill his varsity teams and was amply rewarded. Willingly we gave our men and joyfully supported them.

Before we realized it another year had passed and we were jolly Juniors. We started the year by becoming acquainted with our "Little Sisters and Little Brothers" and all the new students. On Hallowe'en night we gave a Festival and were very much pleased with its results. We have the distinction of having as a loyal classmate the student who has made the highest average of scholarship in the school during our three years here. Several of our class have the ministry in view, one the foreign field, and many others the teaching profession.

With many of our members in the Glee Club, with many going out for athletics, with the record we have already made we are striving earnestly to reach the goal which lies another year beyond us. We realize, as we failed to do in the Fall of 1924, that our knowledge is very small and that if we are to attain to the highest professions and callings we must be up and doing while it is day.

Sophomore Class History

Q N September 8, 1925, the ship, "Freshman Class," with eighty boys and girls on board, launched forth into the deep waters of college life. Unaccustomed to this life, we were at first homesick and blue, and try as we might we could not conceal the fact that we were timid and green, and for this reason we were christened as "greenies" and "rats" by our upper-classmen. After we became better acquainted, our class was organized, with Carl Morgan as our president.

Soon we found that there was some excitement to this life. The Sophomores entertained us with a "Kid" party. Although we were treated as "kids," we must have improved some, for the "Sophs," in order to distinguish us from themselves, tied beautiful green bows around our arms.

Later, we were introduced into "Society." We were allowed to choose the society which we wished to join. The class of '29 has contributed to the various societies some of the best and most loyal members of which the societies can boast.

Durin gthe year we had various social diversions. In appreciation for the party given by us by the "Sophs," we entertained them in the latter part of the year.

A committee composed of several members of our class with the aid of one of the professors drew up a set of resolutions which were signed by every member of the class. The resolutions were to the effect that we would uphold student government and would prevent cheating to the best of our ability.

The following year we found ourselves in deeper water. We began to realize how much we had to master in order that our voyage might be successfully brought to a close at the end of four years. Some of our associates did not return, but several new members were welcomed into our midst. Henry Owl was elected president. Later he became a Junior and Wayne Patterson was elected. Under his guidance, the class of '29 pushed on continuing the splendid work started in the previous year.

In athletics, glee club and music, members of our class have distinguished themselves. The class of '29 claims a large per cent of the letter men of the past two years. In the first part of the year, the annual flag fight was held. Our boys fought valiantly and as a result, won over the Freshmen. On the following night, to restore peace and good will between the two classes, we entertained the Freshmen with a "smile" party.

Just a few days after the Christmas holidays the Administration Building, around which so many happy memories were built, was destroyed by fire. We sincerely hope that within the next two years, while the Class of '29 is still a part of Lenoir Rhyne College, that a greater Lenoir Rhyne will be built. Although we are handicapped to some extent now, we will all try to do better work and make the best of our misfortunes. We will strive to live up to our motto, "We can, because we think we can," so that others may be able to say of the class of '29, "They could because they thought they could."

A black and white line drawing depicting a scene of intimacy and voyeurism. In the center, a man and a woman are embracing. The man is wearing a suit with a prominent diamond or argyle pattern and a tall, pointed hat. The woman is wearing a short, ruffled dress adorned with a floral pattern. To the right, a third person, possibly a woman, is peeking out from behind a heavy curtain, her hand near her mouth in a gesture of surprise or secrecy. The background is filled with vertical lines, suggesting a curtain or a wall. The drawing is signed 'J. M. M. 18' in the bottom right corner.

The Lenoir Rhyne Playmakers

THIS year Lenoir Rhyne added a course in playmaking to the curriculum. Dramatic clubs and dramatic societies have been a part of college life for many years, but this is the first time Lenoir Rhyne has had a dramatic organization with a serious purpose. Taking our cue from the "Little Theater" movement which has come to life all over America, and from the Carolina Playmakers, we have tried to formulate plans which will create here at Lenoir Rhyne a serious body of earnest workers with a high aim.

Under the capable direction of Miss Pearl Setzler, two years with the Carolina Playmakers and one year assistant representative of the Bureau of Community Drama of the U. N. C., we have achieved a fair measure of success, although the real work of the Lenoir Rhyne Playmakers is just beginning.

On November the nineteenth, the Playmakers presented Sheridan's eighteenth century English comedy, The Rivals, in the Municipal Auditorium. The play was a complete success. On January the fourteenth, the Playmakers made their second appearance, presenting four one-act plays: Will O' the Wisp, Neighbors, Overtones, and The Masque of the Two Strangers. For these plays the Playmakers designed their own costumes, and gave the plays on a stage of their own improvising, due to the loss of the auditorium in "Old Main." Thirty students were used in the casts, and every one reflected his or her share of credit upon the organization.

The Playmakers not only produce well-known stage successes, which is the least of their work, but essay a more difficult role, that of written drama. Each student is required to write one original play each semester. These plays are then discussed in class and the author receives suggestions and aid in the development of the play from the entire class. In this way the Playmakers turn out work of distinction.

The purpose of these plays is to represent the traditions, folklore, and the various phases of the present-day life of our people. We believe that there is much in the common experience of the people, as well as in the legends, traditions, and incidents in the history of North Carolina, that is worth preserving for the future historians.

The eight best plays written during the first semester are: The Seventh Wave, a tragedy of the North Carolina coast, by Lucy Gaylord; The Quitter, a philosophical play of college life, by Nat Browder; Scars, an imaginative tragedy, by Mary Elizabeth Blackwelder; As We Think, a psycho'logical comedy of college life, by Elizabeth Lingle; Bettie, a social tragedy, by Mary Brooks; Not a Man in the House, a village comedy, by Elsie Warlick; What Happened, a country comedy, by Fannie Prue Rudisill; At the Corn Shuckin', a rural tragedy, by Irene Seitz. Four of these plays are being chosen for production. We are justly proud of them, because they show that the Playmakers are really accomplishing something.

LYNN, TURNER, BLACK

The Three Managers

DAVID BLACK. Dave was fortunate enough to be player and manager of the greatest football team Lenoir Rhyne has ever turned out. With the aid of former Manager Everette Sox, Black worked out a stiff schedule, and the Maroon and Black proved themselves equal to the task.

FRANK TURNER. Although Turner did not have as great a basketball team as Black did a football team, he had a successful season. He gave us a good schedule and handled the team in great style, and deserves much credit for his work.

O. N. LYNN. "Nick" has been working hard on a baseball schedule, and he is about ready to announce it. He has a good one, we are sure. "Nick" says nothing short of a state championship in baseball will satisfy him this season. Luck to you, Lynn.

L. R. C. FOOTBALL SQUAD, 1926-27

PASOUR, OVERCASH, SPURLOCK, WHISENHUNT

CAPTAIN WAYNE "MULE" PASOUR, End. "Mule" displayed his football ability by playing practically every position on the team at some time or another during his football career. He was an outstanding player at end during his Junior and Senior years, and it was "Mule" they called on to carry the ball when they needed a few yards for a first down. He received honorable mention on All-State team for the past two years.

HUGH OVERCASH, Center. "Vic," at present a sheik among the ladies, but last fall, when drafted to the gridiron, performed as a true and trusted veteran. He was always looking for a play over his position and was ready to stop it.

ALBERT SPURLOCK, Fullback. "Spur" finished his football career in great style, and was placed on the All-State team at fullback. No doubt about it, "Spur" is one of the greatest football players that ever played in North Carolina. His side-stepping, running, and stiff-arming, was spectacular, and was surpassed by none in the state. The long punts he would get off in the games has helped to win many games. His place on the team will be hard to fill next year.

ROY WHISENHUNT, Halfback. "Flash" is another of those fast side-stepping backs. He had the art of getting away faster than any other man on the team, and once he got started he just out ran the would-be tacklers and was hard to stop. His work in the Roanoke game Thanksgiving Day will be long remembered.

BEAM, COX, HOOD, DETWEILER

HUGH BEAM, Tackle. This 225-pound boy was a strong cog in the Lenoir Rhyne line. He is exceptionally fast for such a big man, and no use trying to run a play over him, because he was a tower of strength on the defense. "Parson's" work in the State game will long be remembered. His team-mates showed their confidence in him by electing him captain of the team for next year.

HAMILTON COX, Quarterback. "Ax" has proven himself a capable field general during the past two years. When the men he called on to carry the ball failed to gain, he would carry the ball himself, and he was always good for several yards, and often he would get loose for long gains. It was the true and trusted toe of Cox that brought us victory in the Turkey Day contest against Roanoke.

A. C. HOOD, Tackle. "Brody" has proven himself the most consistent player on the team by playing on the varsity for four years. He was the kind of a fellow that gave his best at all times when in a game of any kind; he never let up until the last whistle had blown. Hood is to be commended on his good nature and his ability to make friends at any time.

WAYNE DETWEILER, Center. "Red" just came to the squad this year, but he has shown us that he has the ability to play real football. His passing is accurate, and he plays a steady game on both the defense and offense. We are expecting great things of Red in a Maroon and Black uniform during the three remaining years he has at Lenoir Rhyne.

KISER, HAGER, RHYNE, STEELMAN

FLOYD KISER, End. "Jack" played a sensational game at end all year, and deserves much credit for it. At the opening of the season Coach did not have a man to play right end; soon "Jack" showed his ability when John Rhodes was injured, and he was given his chance. He has three more years with us, and we are sure he will establish a name for himself on the gridiron.

CLOYD HAGER, Quarterback. Hager is one of those small fellows in stature, but he makes up for that in fight and grit in every game. His field generalship, good judgment and hard work has yielded much fruit for the Lenoir Rhyne team during the past season. Our eyes will be on him and his team for the next three years.

KENNETH RHYNE, Guard. "Ken" is another of those men who does not know what the word "give up" means. "Ken" has been a candidate for the varsity for the past three years, and by his consistency and hard work he was a valuable man to the team, and he received his monogram for the splendid work.

MAX STEELMAN, Guard. Max is another of those small men who make up for their size in fight. This is his first year to make a monogram, but he just missed it by a few minutes last year. Coach could use this little man at guard or end equally as well. He should make a valuable man to the team next year.

McREE, HODGE, RHODES, SIGMON

PAUL McREE, Guard. This man first gained favor with Coach by his ability to size up a play of the opposing team and stop it; he was the terror of the opposition on the defense. "Mack" was a hard tackler, and when he got hold of his man in the right way he always brought him down. He has another year to play football, and we are sure he will have a successful year.

LUTHER HODGE, Halfback. This was the first year of football for Hodge, but with his ability to hit the line he should be one of the Lutherans' ground gainer for next year. He played an important part as substitute the past season, and should be capable of holding down a regular position the coming season.

JOHN RHODES, End. John was one of those wide-awake fellows all during a game, as was shown by the many fumbles he recovered and ran for touchdowns. This man was also a hard man to handle, as many opposing teams found out. He could be counted on at all times, and he was especially good on going down on punts.

WALTER SIGMON, Halfback. The long gains through the opposing line and the accurate passing and his hard work in general accounted for many victories for Lenoir Rhyne. Due to an injured knee, "Chuffey" was not permitted to take part in all of the games.

HENRY OWL, Halfback. "Chief" got away to a bad start this season, getting his collar bone broken in the first game of the year, but he came back strong and was able to do great work for the team in the State game and others. He is especially noted for his cut-back plays and his end runs. We are expecting great things of Owl next year.

LENOIR RHYME EASILY DEFEATS ERSKINE, 19-7

GAME WAS PLAYED STRICTLY BY S. I. A. A. RULES

The Lenoir Rhyme Mountain Bears came back to their own yesterday and completely smothered Erskine College in defeat, the brilliant backfield running of Owl coupled with the line plugging of Spurgeon and resulting in the 19 to 7 victory over the South Carolinians.

The Lutherans got under way at the beginning of the first quarter.

HUGH V. OVERCASH
Captain

"Vic," as he is known to the students, was one of the most consistent players for the past two years. Playing a guard position, he was a tower of strength on the defense and always a hard worker. He will be missed in the line-up next year, as he is graduating with the Class of '27.

Summary of 1926-27 Basketball Season

LENOIR RHYNE COLLEGE supporters may feel disappointed with the performance of the mountain Bears last season, but when all the facts have been considered, it will be seen that the Maroon and Black cagers did as well as expected in view of adverse conditions.

Only seven games were won out of seventeen played for the season record.

The main feature of the work of Coach "Dick" Gurley's charges was their improvement as the season progressed. Beginning with only four men who played regularly on the quintette of the preceding year, Gurley finished up with a floor aggregation which flashed six excellent performers in Captain Overcash, Spurlock, Kiser, Hodge, Brown, and Hood. Pasour and Hager also did good work in the role as substitutes.

The team which lost four games on the Western trip and four games on the Eastern trip was altogether a different team to the one that fought Elon, High Point, Guilford, and Catawba to the end, and which won decisive victories over each. The Bears were beaten several times by close scores, fighting their opponents to the finish before yielding the honor of victory.

Only four letter men on the squad will be back next year. Hodge, Brown, Kiser, and Hager will be on hand when the opening whistle sounds for the cagers in the '27-'28 season, and a work of improvement is expected of every man.

Of last year's squad, Overcash, Spurlock, Hood, and Pasour played consistently, and will be greatly missed by graduation. The teamwork of the Mountain Bears was of the best, but they were handicapped by inexperience.

MEMBERS OF TEAM

ROCHELLE BROWN, Center. Although this was his first year on the squad, "Roch" improved steadily as the season progressed. He played good ball at top form, displaying brilliant passing and accurate shooting.

A. C. HOOD, Center. "Brody" displayed his ability at center by his jumping and consistently working hard and scrapping every minute of the game. His floor work and accurate shooting was a great asset to the team and will be missed next year.

FLOYD KISER, Forward. As this was the first year on the squad for "Jack," he fell right to work and won for himself a regular forward position on the team. His future as a great basketball player will be watched very much, as he has three more years here.

LUTHER HODGE, Forward. Hodge has been high point man for the past two years. His ability to make goals from almost any point on the floor has made him a very valuable man to the team. He has been responsible for many victories for Lenoir Rhyne in the past two years.

HUGH OVERCASH, Captain, Guard. "Vic" was not at his best at the opening of the season on account of an injured knee received in football. His consistent playing and ability on the defense has won him a name as a real basketball player.

ALBERT SPURLOCK, Guard. "Spur" has achieved for himself a name on the hardwood as well as a great football player. The way he played running guard and his ability to break up the offense of the opposing team was his chief asset. His place on the team will be hard to fill next year.

WAYNE PASOUR, Guard. "Mule" was another one of those men Coach could send into the game at any time and be assured that he would play his position creditably. He was called on many times during the year and always proved himself worthy.

CLOYD HAGER, Forward. This being Hager's first year on the squad, he promises to be of great value in the future. He is to be commended on his good nature and hard work during the past season.

GARNETT MITCHELL, Forward. Although "Doc" was with us only a short while, he got in several games and proved to us that he was a real basketball player. We regret very much that he could not stay with us the entire year. His ability to work on the floor and shoot from any angle of the floor were his main assets.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD, 1926-27

L. R. C. BASEBALL TEAM, 1926

Baseball

ROY WHISENHUNT, Center Fielder. "Whis" has been on the All-State team for the past two years, and bids stronger than ever for a berth again this year. He has been named captain of the team for this year. His ability as a fly chaser and hitter will land him in the majors. HUGH COULTER, Right Field. This man can be counted on for a hit when a hit means most. A fast fielder and a consistent player is "Chuffy."

G. RAY BROWN, Utility Man. In this man Coach had a valuable player. "Red" was a good hitter, a terror to all right-handed pitchers, and a hard worker.

PRATT KARRIKER, First Base. Pratt was shifted from pitcher to third base, then to first base; anywhere he always gave his best and has helped to win many ball games for Lenoir Rhyne.

LUTHER HODGE, Second Base. Hodge is another of those All-State men, and he well deserves to be. He was noted for his hard hitting and errorless fielding. Hodge was a dangerous hitter with men on bases.

HERBERT HOMESLY, Pitcher. "Hub" was our best and only left-handed pitcher at Lenoir Rhyne for several years. His pitching will be missed this year, as he is not back with us.

ALBERT SPURLOCK, Pitcher. "Spur" developed into a good pitcher as the season progressed. He was also a good outfielder. He will be called on this year to do much of the pitching.

ROBERT L. CLEMMER, Third Base. "Bobbie" was the smallest man on the club, but he made up for his size by hard work and fighting. He holds the distinction of helping defeat every member of the big five during his college career.

AVERY HARDIN, Shortstop. "Rabbit" was one of the best lead-off men in the state. He would get on base either by a hit or a walk. He also played shortstop in a creditable manner.

MARVIN LENTZ, First Base. No man worked harder than did Lentz. He is a good fielder and a dangerous hitter. It was his pep and trusty bat that won many games for us. We are sure he will rise to great heights in baseball.

CLAUDE HEWETTE, Pitcher. "Doc" is the man that made many batters whiff for the third strike by his dazzling speed and sharp-breaking curves. He has two years yet on the mound for Lenoir Rhyne.

HENRY OWL, Left Field. "Chief" has had much success in athletics since entering. He is the first Indian to represent Lenoir Rhyne in athletics. His speed and hard hitting has been an outstanding feature of baseball for the past year.

A. C. HOOD, Catcher. No man has improved more in the past two years than did "Brodie." Hood took the place of Hazel Clemmer, and performed like a veteran. Much better than many thought he would. Though Clemmer is back this year, we know Hood will be hard to oust from that position.

BAXTER MOOSE, Pitcher. Moose was captain of the team and was a worthy one. He is known all over the state for his splendid pitching, twice picked on All-State team. Another of those fellows who had the distinction of helping defeat every member of the big five during his college career. His pitching will be greatly missed during the coming baseball season.

Our Cheer Leaders

Any person who has ever attended any sort of a ball game realizes what an important part cheering, or the lack of cheering, plays in winning or losing a game, and the cheering depends on the cheer leaders. Lenoir Rhyne is unusually fortunate in having three good cheer leaders—Henry Boger and his two assistants, Taltha Beam and Glenn Boliek. These cheer leaders have led our yells when the last goal won the game for us; when we piled score on score; and, better still, when we have seen defeat staring us in the face. Henry Boger's never-failing "pep" has inspired many a shy freshman to yell his loudest. Taltha's ever-ready smile and Glenn's beaming countenance have encouraged many a person to keep on cheering when it seemed that old L. R. C. would surely lose the game. They have a part in many of our victories, and they really deserve our heartiest cheers.
